

HASTINGS TILE & BATH

To our trusted Hastings Bath Dealers:

We are still riding the wave of enthusiasm we felt exhibiting at the ICFF (International Contemporary Furniture Fair) show this past May – it's satisfying to know that the industry responds to our products with such interest. Of particular interest was the new collection from Sonia; everything from Fractal to Lesson 1 garnered lots of attention from media and trades people.

And speaking of Sonia, we are excited to share our new Sonia price books and Sonia Universe catalog with you. These books are available both as hard copies (they are on their way to you now) and as downloads. There is also a Hastings price list supplement and brochure that includes the New Sonia items. Please download and review the documents as soon as you can to familiarize yourself with our new products.
