Glass change: we have moved to a glass finish which has less of a mirrored effect – the primary customer advantage of this change is the glass is far less susceptible to fingerprints.

Enamel change: the enamel on our Italian ranges have been changed to be in line with our other FPA branded cooking products creating commonality across the category. The change means a slightly darker color with no fleck.

OB24 – our 24” is now able to be installed in 208v application making is suitable for our builder channels.

We are in production of the ranges, 24” oven and warming drawer. Per earlier communication we are due to start production of our 30” ovens this week.

Price guides are in the process of being updated and will be sent shortly.
