Out of Stock - Oceania Doors and Linear waste & overflow

Dear Customers,

We would like to inform you that we are currently out of stock for some of our glass doors, as well as Linear waste & overflow:

Marelia return panel PBSDR32 : arriving end of April

EKO60 Door: arriving end of April

Return panel ML36B2 (used in ML Optimale concepts with California doors):
arriving end of April

The Linear waste & overflow, in all colors, will be available in 2 weeks only.

We will ship the doors as soon as they arrive. We are really sorry for the inconvenience and we assure you that we will adjust and correct this situation.

Regards,

Marc Dussault
President
