Valli provides different configurations of Multipoint trim.
In order to select the right configuration you should identify the following:

- 1. The name of the manufacturer of the door and of the multi-point lock. Each manufacturer uses different templates for door drilling and different configurations are needed according to the manufacturer of the lock. Valli covers the main configurations of the following manufacturers:
Weathershield®, Sierra Pacific®, PGT®, Pella®, Paddock®, Milgard®, Marvin®, Loewen®, KFV®, Jeld-Wen®, Hoppe®, G-U®, Crestline®, BiltBest®, Atrium®, Ashland®, Andersen®.
- 2. The distance between the lever and the cylinder (center to center).
Valli accommodates CTC distance of 92mm (3.5/8”) standard only.
- 3. The lever position on the plate if above or below the cylinder.
This determines the different functions – see page 163 for details.
- 4. The cylinder used in the door: if American or Euro profile cylinder.
The cylinder is always included in the configuration and pricing, unless differently specified.

When all these 4 questions are answered, it is possible to proceed with the specification.

15. INDUSTRY STANDARD

The prevailing industry standard is that the special order items, electrical products and specialty keyed products may not be returned.

16. CARE & MAINTENANCE

Door handles and their accessories are designed to open and close doors. They represent a complimentary element of the door, together with the frame, hinges, door panel, lock and cylinder.

Opening and closing a door with a handle requires certain actions, such as opening a security bolt.

Only in certain cases, such as on emergency doors, the handles serves the function of working the lock by lowering or pushing it.

Window handles too are to be considered only a complimentary part of the window. It is normally the opening system of the window that determines the hardware required and consequently the mechanism required for the working of the window handle.

Door handles, pull handles and window handles are often incorrectly used, damaging the Product and the quality standard defined by the producer. Common errors include:

The use of the handle as a support or hook for objects which may be excessively heavy.

The use of the handle as a plaything by children.

The use of the handle as a doorstep against the wall.

VALLI Products do not require excessive maintenance

For care and cleaning, except in those cases where a specific Product is recommended for certain finishes, VALLI recommends the use of just a soft dry cloth.

VALLI discourages the use of sanitizing wipes, or sprays, which may affect the surface of the lever with possible peeling of the external coating, and consequent oxidation.

VALLI also suggests to protect the levers from any liquid or spray product used for mirror/window cleaning. It may result in the damage of the lever surface, especially on polished finishes.

To ensure a correct installation, the instructions contained in the box should be followed.

If necessary consult the retailer or specialized personnel, or the specific "HOW TO" section in the VALLI website.

In the case of Products in glass or porcelain together with brass, it should be remembered that these fragile materials are liable to break if used incorrectly.

VALLI recommends the use of doorstops fixed to the floor or the wall close to the door or its handle.

On all Products with a set screw VALLI recommends the use of a retaining compound. It is also advisable to check the position and tightness of all fixing elements at regular intervals.

The user/purchaser of the Product should ask the retailer for instructions regarding the correct installation, care and maintenance of the Product. VALLI Products are subject to a continual process of development and updating, and Production is constantly monitored by VALLI Quality Assurance.

Most VALLI Products are "tools" for opening and closing doors and windows. Inevitably, as with all artifacts, depending on the material of which they are made and where they are made and where they are used, they are subject to wear and then passing of time.

Brass, an alloy subject to oxidation, has to be covered with a protective coating if its appearance is to remain unchanged over time.

Care should be taken during use and maintenance, as improper use or poor maintenance could damage the protective coating, permitting corrosion and consequently causing an anti-aesthetic appearance.

Stainless steel is generally considered to be indestructible.

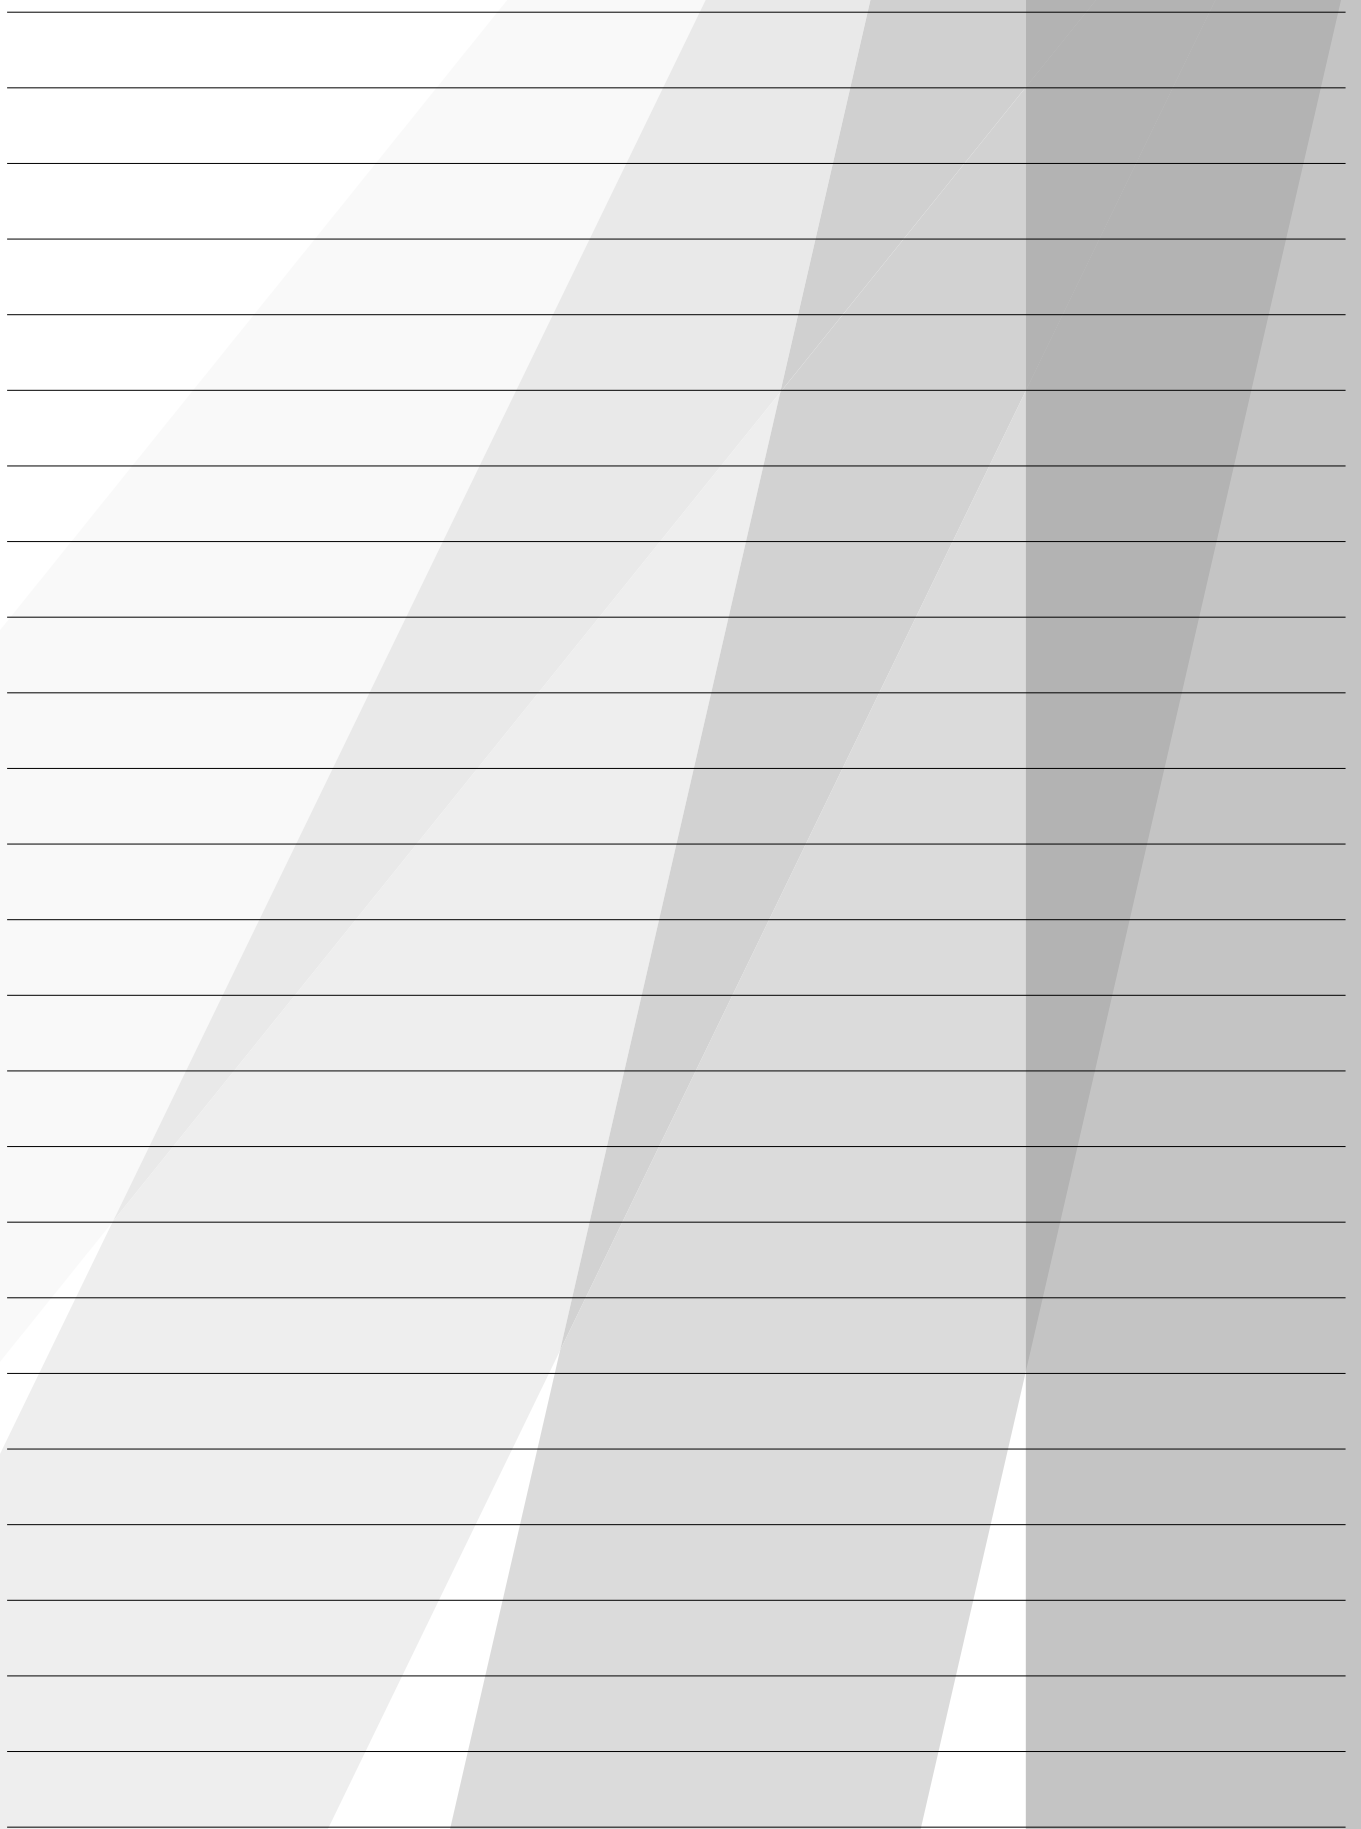

However, even this material can show the occasional scratch or spot of rust.

Such rust-spots are so-called "surface ruse", and can be removed using an appropriate cleaner, available from specialized retailers.

The manufacturer cannot be held responsible for damage due to normal wear and tear, incorrect treatment, installation or maintenance or non-observance of the above warnings.
