

The California Faucets CeraLine™ Advantage

|                                                                                                                                                                      | CeraLine™ | Infinity Drain | ACO by Quartz | Quick Drain |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|----------------|---------------|-------------|
| Design Features                                                                                                                                               |           |                |               |             |
| Can be installed for curb-free, fully accessible shower entry.                                                                                                       | ✓         | ✓              | ✓             | ✓           |
| Trim Lengths from 28" to 48".                                                                                                                                        | ✓         | ✓              | ✓             | ✓           |
| Multiple trim design options.                                                                                                                                        | ✓         | ✓              | ✓             | ✓           |
| Tile-in version allows for inlaid stone or tile for a virtually invisible drain.                                                                                     | ✓         | ✓              | ✓             |             |
| Ultra narrow drain cover width for clean, streamlined look.                                                                                                          | ✓         |                |               | ✓           |
| Sleek, solid drain cover with no unsightly grid holes to reveal rough drain body or debris below.                                                                    | ✓         |                |               |             |
| Six decorative finishes including five PVD ultra durable finishes.                                                                                                   | ✓         |                |               |             |
| Most European design awards, including:-Red Dot Design Award-IF Product Design Award-Good Design Award-Design Plus Award-Designpreis Deutschland | ✓         |                |               |             |

The California Faucets CeraLine™ Advantage (continued)

|                                                                                                                                                      | CeraLine™                                                                    | InfinityDrain | ACO byQuartz                                                            | QuickDrain                                                              |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Installation Benefits                                                                                                                         |                                                                                     |                           |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |
| Drain body comes fully fabricated to ensure problem-free install. No field modification or assembly necessary.                                       |    |                           |  |  |
| No unsightly visible drain body edges after installation.                                                                                            |    |                           |                                                                                     |  |
| Can use all accepted waterproofing methods including: PVC/CPE membrane, liquid membrane or hot-mop.                                           |    |                           |  |                                                                                     |
| Infinite-adjustment support legs to ensure perfect leveling of the drain body in all installation environments.                                      |   |                           |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |
| Infinite-adjustment leveling pads ensure that trim is perfectly flush to tile. Can be adjusted after installation.                            |  |                           |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |
| Single drain body style adapts to all installation methods (clamping or no-hub).                                                                     |  |                           |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |
| Standard kit includes at no extra charge:-Tile Framing Template-Disposable Mudguard-Tile Edge Holders-Adaptor for 2" Clamping Flange |  |                           |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |

The California Faucets CeraLine™ Advantage (continued)

|                                                                                                                                              | CeraLine™ | InfinityDrain | ACO byQuartz | QuickDrain |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------|
| Workmanship                                                                                                                           |                  |                           |                          |                        |
| Engineered for all US installation methods—IAPMO approved.                                                                                   | ✓                |                           | ✓                        | ✓                      |
| Drain bodies constructed of high-grade stainless steel.                                                                                      | ✓                |                           | ✓                        | ✓                      |
| High-capacity drainage.                                                                                                                      | ✓                | ✓                         |                          | ✓                      |
| Specially formed drain body to ensure complete drainage and no standing water inside the drain.                                              | ✓                |                           |                          | ✓                      |
| Patented sanded flange for secure bonding of liquid membrane or hot mop waterproofing.                                                       | ✓                |                           |                          |                        |
| Marketing Benefits                                                                                                                    |                  |                           |                          |                        |
| Single type of drain body for all trim styles, installation and waterproofing methods. Reduces confusion or potential errors on the jobsite. | ✓                |                           |                          | ✓                      |
| Part of a full-line, established, reputable decorative plumbing manufacturer with over 20 years experience supplying showrooms.              | ✓                |                           |                          |                        |