THE DCS STORY

The Brand

THE VISION

THE ART OF GOURMET COOKING IS IN THE PREPARATION
THE PASSION IS IN THE DETAILS

A demi-glacé made from scratch. Chopping garlic instead of pressing it. Time consuming rituals, but a true chef would have it no other way and neither would we. The DCS cooking systems begin in the minds of distinguished chefs and are engineered with the requirements of true professional restaurant cooking for at home chefs. Because if you want spectacular results, you can not compromise your principals.
